ORANGE GROVE CENTER AWARDS FORMER BOARD MEMBER HUGH MOORE

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (July 19, 2007) – Orange Grove Center recently awarded outgoing board president, Hugh Moore, for his years of service.

During his tenure, Moore focused on issues relating to autism, started the multi-million dollar project to repair the roof at the Center, and gained approval for the first United Way campaign back in the mid-90s. He was also responsible for restructuring board meetings to ensure inclusion of all members.

"The Center is just an incredible place, and an opportunity to serve on the board and as president makes me feel very fortunate and honored to have been involved," he said.

Moore will be replaced by Michael Barto, a nine-year member who has held offices as Treasurer and Vice President. Barto is a managing partner and CPA for Barto, Hoss and Company.
