Award and Recognition Ceremony

Closing Remarks

Kyle Hauth

Staff and volunteers who have been with Orange Grove for 10 years or more as of June 30, 2011, will receive a special gift at the table near the entrance.

Special thanks to Monty Parks and the Orange Grove Chorus for today's music, and to the University Center of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga for our Founders' Day meal and venue.

(Those who left employment and returned to OGC count years of service from the date of last employment.)

Awards and Recognitions

Five, Ten, Fifteen, Twenty, Twenty-Five, Thirty, & Thirty-Five Year Service Awards

Awarded to staff members and board members.

The Clarence Johnson Award

Each staff member who has perfect attendance during the year from July 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011, will receive a certificate of recognition, and their name inscribed on a permanent plaque, which hangs at the center.

Paddle, Eagle and “Dolly” Awards

Begun years ago as an “ata boy” award for employees who went above and beyond the call of duty at the annual client rafting trip, the Paddle Awards were made a part of the annual Founders’ Day recognitions as a way of identifying outstanding employees from Residential Habilitation and ICF. The Eagle and “Dolly” Awards will be given to Supported Living.

The Allison Ogden Award

This award recognizes the outstanding Residential staff member during the past year. The recipient will receive a personal plaque.

The Emily McKenzie Award

This award recognizes the outstanding health care worker in the McCravey Medical Center. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

OGC Nurse of the Year Award

This new award recognizes an outstanding nursing professional from among OGC’s many departments that employ nurses. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

The OGC Board Member of the Year Award

This award recognizes an outstanding individual from among OGC’s Board of Directors.

The Lifesaving Award

This award recognizes staff members who gave the ultimate gift of saving a life. The recipient will receive a plaque/framed certificate.

The Ruth Akins and Ruff Robinson Award

This award recognizes the outstanding Bus and Van Driver of the Year. The recipient will receive a jacket and a personal plaque.

The Ruth Keene Award

This award recognizes the outstanding Teacher of the Year. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

The Dubrow Direct Support Professional Award

This award recognizes the outstanding Direct Support Professional of the Year. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

Kelly Bankston Memorial Therapy Services Award

This award recognizes an outstanding employee from the Therapy Services department. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

The Wanda Fleming Award

This award is given annually to the outstanding Orange Grove staff member. The recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their name will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

The Tom Caldwell Award, The John Germ Award, The Walter Lerch Award, and The Isidore Tyber Award

Given to employees who display exceptional work qualities, and superior performance in the delivery of supports to people receiving services through the ACT Program. Each recipient will receive a personal plaque, and their names will be inscribed on a permanent plaque at the center.

The Fred Galletta Award

This award is given to employees who excel in cooperation and the unselfish sharing of resources for the common good of Orange Grove.
