

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Leslie Smith
Coordinator, Public Relations and Marketing
Orange Grove Center
lesmith@orangegrove.org
(423) 308-1160

JAX LIQUORS DONATES RIVERBEND PROCEEDS TO ORANGE GROVE CENTER

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (June 28, 2007) – Riverbend may be over, but that didn't stop Jax Liquors, located at 216 Market Street, from showing a little love where it was needed.

On Friday, June 29, 2007, they presented a check for over $1200 to Orange Grove Center to help the Center provide for its Art Department. This was following the week-long Riverbend Festival, in which Jax turned their parking lot into a fund-raising opportunity. They charged festival-goers to park in their lot each night of Riverbend. Some non-parking patrons were inspired, and pulled out their checkbooks to help the cause.

"People were asking to use the lot anyway, so we thought we may as well do it for a good cause," said Jax owner, Lisa Andrews.

This is the third year Jax has given to Orange Grove Center following Riverbend. Last year, proceeds totaled just under $1300.

To learn more about Orange Grove Center, or to make a donation call 308-1160. You may also visit the website at www.orangegrovecenter.com.

The Orange Grove Center is a private non-profit organization, serving adults and children with intellectual disabilities. The agency was founded in 1953 by Chattanooga parents and community leaders seeking services for disabled children within the county.

###